Homicide Investigation

Claremont, CA – On June 29, 2026, at approximately 11:38 a.m., officers from the Claremont Police Department responded to the 1400 block of Lynoak Drive regarding a reported medical emergency.

Upon arrival, officers determined that an infant had been thrown to the floor by a juvenile at the residence. Personnel from the Los Angeles County Fire Department responded to the scene and transported the infant to Pomona Valley Hospital Medical Center for emergency medical treatment.

The juvenile suspect was taken into custody at the scene and transported to the Claremont Police Department Jail, where he was booked. Due to the severity of her injuries, the infant was later transferred to Children's Hospital of Orange County (CHOC), where she subsequently succumbed to her injuries.

The juvenile suspect is currently being held at Los Padrinos Juvenile Hall on a charge of murder. He is scheduled to be arraigned on July 2, 2026.

This investigation remains ongoing. Anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to contact the Claremont Police Department at (909) 399-5411.
