4th OF JULY CELEBRATION SPEAKERS CORNER

Claremont, CA –The 2025 Independence Day Committee is looking for orators for the T. Willard Hunter Speakers Corner at the 4th of July Celebration Festival.

The T. Willard Hunter Speakers Corner is a Claremont 4th of July tradition that celebrates freedom of speech. T. Willard Hunter, a writer and community advocate, started the tradition in 1977 to allow citizens to express their opinions on national and local issues. Past speeches have focused on literature, politics, religion, history, travel, and personal fulfillment. Speeches should be no more than five minutes in length, and timeslots are available between 10:15 a.m. and 11:30 a.m.

Entries are being accepted at www.claremontca.gov/speakers-corner. For more information, please contact the Recreation and Human Services Department at (909) 399-5490 or specialevents@claremontca.gov.
